Very nice family. Mrs. Bryson taught me in Sunday School at Memorial Baptist. Maybe first or second grade. She taught for many years. Sad to hear of her passing but know she is heaven. Prayers to Mark. Karen Russell Summers

Joy was absolutely the most loving and wonderful Christian lady I have ever known. She was like a second Mother to me for over 30 years and I was so very proud for her to call me her daughter. Joy didn't have to tell anyone that she loved her Lord & Savior because you could easily see her love in everything she did. She was constantly visiting those that were sick, bringing them meals and praying for those that needed prayer. She was definitely a prayer warrior. I loved Joy so very much and I am so happy for her to finally be in her eternal home with Jesus Christ our Lord and with all her many loved ones, that have been waiting for her there. The Angels were definitely singing, as she closed her eyes here and opened them in Heaven. Joy fought the good fight. I will miss her terribly, as I know her family will also. Mark, please know that you are on our hearts and in our prayers.

Love & Prayers,
Linda Darby Menton
