“ I am sorry to hear of Harold Wayne’s passing. They say the good die young. This has to be one of those times. God has a plan, and Harold Wayne, I believe, is a part of it so God took him home. Oh how his family who have gone before will be opening their arms and holding him tight! I remember him , just a baby, living with us upon the loss of his Mother. He was a precious baby and became a wonderful man. Dee, I know you will miss him. May God give you and your family strength and comfort in coming days.

With love,
Harold Wayne’s Cousin,

“ Harold Wayne was one of the best cousins a guy could be blessed with. He loved with his whole being. If he loved you, you knew it. His smile and laugh will be in my memory forever. And if you were hungry, he fed you. If you needed anything, and he had it, he would say "well why didn't you ask me? I have that right here." A very generous man indeed. A joke teller, story teller, a fixer of pretty much anything. I wish I could have spent more time with him in our younger years. This loss really hurts, but I know he is in Heaven and having that reunion we will all have someday. My sincerest condolences to family, friends, and acquaintances.
