

William Trevor Worthen

July 22, 1972 - March 15, 2020

William Trevor Worthen was born in Corsicana, Texas July 22, 1972 to Bill and Gail Worthen. He is survived by his wife Jennifer Phillips Worthen of Hewitt and his daughters, Ashley Diane of Sherman, Avery Noel of Hewitt, and Mary Grace of Hewitt, his parents Bill and Gail Worthen of Corsicana/Richland Chambers, and his uncle Bert Rader of Lake Whitney. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Cal and Bea Rader and his grandmother Libbie Reynolds.

Trevor grew into a man who never knew a stranger and was always ready to help anyone. He was a rescuer of turtles, cats, dogs or anything or anyone in need. He loved cooking and eating and telling stories. He loved hunting, fishing, traveling and the sea but most of all he loved his family, his "four" girls especially. He was happiest cooking up a pot of something good, sharing it with family and friends and spicing it up with good stories and jokes. He was deeply loved by all of us and will be greatly missed.

He served in the intelligence division of the army which led to his career as a supervisor for underwater ROVs (remotely operated vehicles). His work allowed him to travel the world, explore all but two of the world's oceans and to make friendships across the world.

Tribute from his daughter Ashley Diane:

My Dad never met a stranger. He and I once stopped to get a drink. There were two men sitting near us and within 30 minutes we knew everything about them and we were friends. He could talk to anyone about anything and was genuinely more interested in other people than himself.

He loved camping. Before my sisters were born, he took me on a camping trip to Lake Caddo. We were rained out and had to sleep in the car.

He had the uncanny ability to find humor in every situation. I can only imagine what he would say about passing away during a time like this when the world is in panic and chaos. He would definitely give us a grin. He was a true source of light in the world. It was appropriate that he found a line of work that took him all over the world. He was inquisitive, loved to read and never wanted to stop learning new things. He genuinely loved his family and wanted to make sure we all had good times. I have always believed that death is rest and that rest is strength in disguise for the next adventure. He is with God. His story is just beginning.

Memorial services will be held at a later date because of the need for limited social contact during the corona virus pandemic.

One of my first Waco friends, more like family ever since. We didn't hang out as much as we should of, but I always considered him, Jen and the girls as family. I'll miss you brother...

Trevor was one of a kind! He was my best friend, he was always so adventurous and never had a fear of trying something new or going to a new place. He never met a stranger he could always connect with people and share his own experiences because he had done it before. I'm going to miss you pulling up in your Jeep with no notice telling me to come on let's hit the creeks and check out some off road trails. He called me his navigator otherwise he would take us down a dangerous trail and I had to keep him somewhat in line because he had no fear, we always had such a good time together. You left all of us to soon buddy, I'll always remember all the good times we've had going fishing, swimming in the summertime with the kids, grilling in the back yard and sitting around a fire making s'more's with our families. I'll miss the random phone calls telling me to take the day off and let's go see what we can get into today, the text when you'd make it in from a trip to grab lunch and tell me about your adventure. You were always a good friend and my family will always hold a special place for you in our hearts. Thanks for all the great times, memories and joy you brought to our lives. RIP

You're Best Friend...
