“ To the entire Tesmer family: My heart is aching with grief at your tremendous loss. I have been praying and will continue to pray for each of you several times a day for weeks to come. I certainly do not have the means to comfort you at this time of terrible shock and sadness, but I do know that our Lord can. Please feel His arms around you now and when you experience the ups and downs in the future. Aaron was such a great young man, I told him so myself this past summer: smart, talented, handsome, caring, and destined for success. His ultimate success now lies in His salvation with Jesus. God bless you all.

“ Dear Randy & Family,

I was so saddened to hear about your Son's death. I can not imagine what you are going through. I will be praying for you and your Family in the coming days. I know God will wrap his arms around you all and comfort you. Children are precious gifts from God and I know this will be a difficult time for you. Just know you are in our prayers. We love you all!

“ Dearest Lynn,
We as Christians know in our Hearts that this time in your families life is just but a moment as Our Lord has his son back home and in his care. Be strong in knowing you will all be together again for eternity. You were always there for him and I remember so clearly how you would come to Bowie and eat with him. You be proud of all the times you showed support in all he was involved with in his Life and that alone will help you threw. You are in my prayers always. In my heart having a 19 year old myself I know that the Lord would see me threw a situation like this and that is my comfort for you. I will always cherish the Friendship we had at Bowie. You are in my Prayers always.

“ Bill, Barbara, Randy, Lynn, Lisa, Mike and brother and sister. The Tesmers are more like my family than my friends. When Randy, Mike & Lisa were in grade school I kept them after school. I have lost 2 children in death and that is not the way that any of us would have it, but Our Lord and Saviour Jesus is in total control and even though we don't know why these things happen we know He does. I did not know your children personally Randy but I do know you and Lynn and what fine christian parents that you are. This breaks my heart for you and your Mom and Dad . There are no words that will comfort you at this time or in days to come but we have to keep our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and know that his plan for us is perfect and someday when we meet Him face to face in that heavenly place that He has prepared for all of us who are believers we will understand. With the mess this world is in we may see Him sooner than we think. Just know how much I love all of you and my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Stunned does not even come close to what I felt when Colton came in from school today and broke the news to me. I kept thinking, I just saw Aaron shopping with his Dad in Wal-mart monday. My prayers are with each and everyone of you. Mere words expressing sorrows just don't amount to much in times like these. Colton told me that Aaron had wanted to get together and hang out and I told Colton that I thought that would be a good idea, and now .... I'm so sorry for this tragedy that you are suffering, and I'll pray for you daily, for a long time to come.

My heart broke for you when I hear about Aaron. Only GOD Knows why, but HE will help you get through the next few days, weeks, and months. Just remember we are here only for a shout while, some less then others, but I know Aaron touched the many lives that GOD wanted him to touch in his time here.
You are in my prayers and GOD is with you and will strengthen you during this time.

“ Lynn, Randy, and Lauren. I wish I knew some magic words that would lessen your pain, but I don't. I can't begin to imagine what you are going through, but I do know that God loves you and will lift you up if you trust in Him. We had a special prayer time for your family and the Darby's at Westside Baptist today. I know that God heard our prayers and will give you comfort during this hurtful time.

Lynn, you were there with soft, kind words, and a hug when I got the news of my cancer. I will gladly return the favor if you need it. For now I will continue to pray for you and your family. I can only hope that Aaron's friends have seen how short life can be and how precious every day is that we are given. Maybe some that don't know the Lord will realize their need to seek Jesus as Aaron did.

God Bless and keep you. Cathy

“ Aaron was such a fantastic person. He was an excellent student (whom I remember well from English in the sixth grade), but more importantly, Aaron was a person that people should emulate. *Aaron was a delight, and never hesitated to come to my office after a Tardy!!! He told me Wednesday he never worried, he knew I'd take care of him, and that I did. My heart breaks to know he won't be bringing that smile walking toward me, knowing exactly what he is coming to me for. CHS lost a a young man of talent, vibrance and just all around good kid. “ Randy, Lynn & Lauren,

Our hearts were broke into pieces Saturday when we learned of the sudden, unexpected death of Aaron, and we cannot imagine the depth of your sorrow.

We wish we had words to comfort and sustain you in your grief, but we know there are none that will take away any pain you are feeling now. Our hearts ache for all of you, and our arms long to embrace you.

Although words seem futile now in the midst of your sorrow, they are all we have to give you. Please accept these written words as warm hugs to wrap yourself in, and know that we are holding all of you in our hearts at this sad and difficult time.

“ Jeff and I were devastated by the news on Friday. We are still in shock. Jessyka has a flyer from the State Fair hanging on her bulletin board. Both the girls had so much fun with your family that day. Aaron was a special person and I am glad he was a friend to Jessyka. I had peace of mind knowing that if she ever needed someone; Aaron was a friend she could call. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Lauren and Family,
Its times like this we all need to be here for eachother. Just know, Aaron will be missed by many. Ya'll are in my thoughts and prayers.

Lauren, I love you girl. I know there arent any words that can make this any easier.. but I want you to know that me, and many others from school, are here for you all the way.

I'd be happy to laugh, pray and even cry with you anytime you need me.

I pray that you will stay strong through out this, Its what Aaron would want. We all know where he is and just think, We will be there too someday. He's much happier there, I promise you that. I hope to see you back at school as soon as possible. We miss you already babe.

“ Aaron was my brothers dearest friend. They were more brothers than I was to mine. In the short time I was down late August, I spent some time with Aaron and Dang. I didn't realize until now, how close they were. Embarrassed to say, Aaron probably spent more time with my little brother than I ever did. I am very thankful that my brother was able to grow up and maintain a close relationship with such a wonderful and good going person like Aaron. I know he was a great influence on Dang. I want to thank Aaron for eveything. Also my family and I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Tesmer for allowing Aaron to come into our lives. Aaron will always be in our hearts.

“ Dear Tesmer Family,
We are deeply sorry for the loss of Aaron. I didn't know him that well, as did Erica, but I can truly say that you all raised this young man to be an outstanding influence on all of his peers. Everytime I saw him, he always had a sweet smile to share, and most of all we remember seeing Aaron on the cruise this summer, when he walked up to Erica and she was so surprised to see him. She was so heartbroken, but I can't even imagine what you must be going through. We will keep your family in our thoughts and prayers and know that God will wrap his loving arms around you.

There are no words to express the shock and sadness we felt when we heard the news about Aaron and Jacob. We can never understand why things like this happen, but we have comfort in knowing that God is with these two fine young men and their love and memories will always be with you. Lean on God, family and friends at this time and they will get you through this sad time. Aaron may be gone, but his spirit will always be with those who knew and loved him. Give thanks for all the many people he touched during his time on Earth and know that those have been richly blessed because of Aaron. Know that our utmost thoughts and prayers will always be with you and your precious family. Keep your faith, stay strong and may God bless each one of you.

“ Dear Randy and Lynn,
When I heard of this I prayed it was not your son. I am so sorry for your loss. I can not begin to understand as God has seen fit to spare me this pain for now. I know you know Aaron is Rejoicing with the Lord Amen. That will help in the days, months, years to come. I pray God will grant you and your entire family the peace that only he can grant. The peace that passes understanding. I once again am sorry so sorry for your loss. I knew Aaron from Brookshires but I had no idea he was your child. He was a very respectful and kind young man.
