“ One of the first things I remember about Augustine was his sweet smile. I looked forward to seeing him and this thing with him every Monday at Good News Cafe.
He will certainly be missed.

“ I met Augustin at FBC Good News Cafe. I would also see him around town. He was a very special man. Despite health problems and other challenges in life, Augustin always smiled and said he was doing good. I will definitely miss seeing him. God called this special man home. Praying for family and friends during this time of loss.
