“Never give up.”

Albert Sr. Gallegos died peacefully surrounded by his family November 14th, 2020 at his home in Fairfield, Texas after a four year battle with cancer.

“ Our condolences to all your family, Albert. You were a good friend to Jimmy even after he quit working at the City with you. It was good to run into you occasionally and catch up. You fought hard to beat your cancer. Always staying positive about it. I know that’s why you were here so much longer. Our love, Jimmy and Susan Gothard
