“ As a trucker for 40 years, I feel like I "knew" Alvin in a way, just by reading all the comments by drivers who were impacted by his dedication to safety and strong desire to see new drivers succeed in this profession. I can only imagine how many people's lives he was instrumental in saving, just by helping to produce safer drivers on the road. I am very saddened by the news of his passing and the way he died. I wish I could have met him and thanked him myself. It must be so hard to have lost such a great man! My condolences go out to you, his family and friends. I will try to remember him and you all in my prayers.

“ There are so many memories from our childhood. Lynn was Debbie's (my sister) first love and Danny was mine. We all spent so much time together as children. And we all had so much fun together.

43 years later Danny and I reconnected and have not left each other's sides. Lynn and Debbie reconnected a few times recently and made some wonderful memories together again. They rekindled a special friendship that will never be forgotten.

We love you Lynn and will miss you so much. You know that we will have many stories to talk about when we need a good laugh! 🤔

“ This saddens me so much. I was one of the trainees that witnessed the accident. I didn't know Mr. Thomas that long but in the short time I did I can tell that he was a man that cared about his work and took his job very seriously. One of the main things he emphasized to us all is safety first. One of the last memories I have of him is when he was telling us how much he disliked failing students because he understood that most of us were down to our last dollars and were trying to do something about it. This showed me that he not only cared about us as trainees but as people. As someone who recently lost a parent I can honestly say that I truly understand what you guys are going through. I am very very sorry for this tragic loss and the pain it has brought upon your family. You all have my deepest condolences. I will continue to pray for God to give you all strength and peace during this tragic time in Jesus name.
