“ To Doug, Tim, Lyndsay, & Seth: Anyone who knew Amy, loved her. And even tho she can't be with us, she will always be watching over you. Please remember that God was walking thru his garden admiring all of his beautiful, precious roses yesterday. When he came to the one named Amy, he chose to pick her to take her into his house to admire forever. My love, thoughts & prayers are with you always.

“ Amy,

Was a very sweet lady and everybody loved Amy. She will be missed by everybody and I loved Amy she always had a smile on her face. And when she lefted Ennis Wal-Mart I was very upset and when this cancer got her I have been though this before with my baby brother he died at 33 with colin cancer and its was not a pretty picture. But I will miss Amy alot and I loved her and always will and one day I see her again up in Heaven no more cancer for her. I know Amy is very happy up there.

“ Doug,
Our hearts go out to you and your whole family. Amy was indeed very special to us and we will miss her so very much. It was wonderful to see Lyndsay last summer when she was in Galva. She reminded me of Amy so much that day. It seems like years since I have seen Amy but my memories are still fresh and very fond.

It is nice to know that she will be in good company now with her grandmother watching over all of us. Take care and we will keep your family in our prayers....

*Love,
Karen*

“ Doug, Tim, Lindsey, and Seth,
We just now heard about Amy and I am so upset that we were not able to be there for you! Your family has meant so much to us. We had such good times together, times we will never forget! Your family became our family and we loved Amy so much. She was such a great person and the world will not be the same without her. Please try to contact us. I have been trying to email you for several weeks. I had you all on my mind lately. We love you all!

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.

“ My heart goes out to you, Amy's family. I was blessed to be her sister in the Lord. We prayed for each other as we battled breast cancer. We took part in a play at church at Christmastime 4 yrs. ago. I have the video. She was such a blessing and tried to point her kids to Jesus. I know she is with the Lord now healed and not suffering. I'm so sorry to loose her so young. My prayers go to the Father for you all. I know she tried to make you strong. God bless you!!!! I'm so glad we got to do that play together. It was great fun and pointed people to Jesus. She cared about people and wanted them to be saved and to be overcomers. I'm so glad she crossed my path and touched my life.
