

Angel Barajas

March 27, 2008 - January 3, 2025

Angel Yair Barajas, age 16, of Corsicana, Texas, passed away on Friday, January 3, 2025, at the National Institute of Health in Maryland with his loving family by his side. Angel was born on March 27, 2008, in Palestine, Texas, to his devoted parents, Crescencio Barajas and Alejandra Laura Rodriguez.

Angel had a beautiful childhood filled with love, laughter, and the admiration of his neighborhood. Everyone who knew him was drawn to his kind spirit and warm personality. He attended Corsicana High School, where he was a bright and determined student. Although his illness interrupted his dream of completing high school, Angel excelled in welding and math and was admired for his dedication and precision in everything he pursued.

Angel's life was filled with passions and joys. He loved playing soccer, video games, and his bass and guitar. He was shy yet meticulous, always ensuring everything was perfect and striving to bring his family together. Angel was a strong and brave young man, qualities that shone brightly in his battle against illness. His faith was also a cornerstone of his life, as he participated in post-confirmation at his Catholic church.

Angel's family was the center of his world, and his friends brought him joy and comfort. He was blessed with a close-knit circle, including a friend who gifted him a special bear that became a treasured keepsake. His love for food was as vibrant as his personality, with favorites like mole, tacos dorados, Doritos Dinamita, slushies, and Dr. Pepper bringing him happiness.

Angel is survived by his parents, Crescencio Barajas and Alejandra Laura Rodriguez; his sister, Jacqueline Barajas; his grandparents; and numerous uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him deeply.

Words like strong, brave, loving, and caring describe Angel perfectly. He will be remembered for his resilience, his unwavering love for his family, and the way he touched the lives of everyone who knew him.

“ I remember he and I didn't get along back in 5th grade lol. We would always say who was better and stuff and then I didn't talk to him for a while. We finally talked my freshman year, he told me he had a condition, and I never judged him for it. He was a really nice kid out of all people I never knew he would pass we always said I would be the one to pass first cuz of my stupid actions but rest in peace bro I love you bro Gemini
