

Angie Lockhart

November 24, 1954 - July 16, 2021

ANGELIN CHARISSE LOCKHART left this life on Friday, July 16, 2021 at age 66.

Angie, as she was known by all, was born in Boone, North Carolina on November 24, 1954 to James & Jean Combs. She graduated from Haines High School in 1972, from Tyler Junior College in 1984, & from Wayland Baptist University in 2001.

Angie's great drive in life was caring for others, & it showed in everything she did. She was a nursing home administrator for 37 years, a volunteer emergency responder for 24 years, an advocate for education, & a frequent contributor to good causes.

Angie was the centerpiece of her family. She raised her three children as a single mother. She called them her inspiration & her grandchildren her heart. She married Tommy Lockhart in January 2008. Some of her favorite times were vacations to Red River & the Carribean with her husband.

Angie was an avid reader. She liked watching movies & TV shows, both classic & current. She instilled a love of comic book stories in her kids & grandkids, who all enjoyed sharing that interest with her. A football fan, she supported the Green Bay Packers & any family member who gave sports a try. She was fond of horse racing & had a real knack for picking winners.

Angie will be remembered for her generosity, wisdom, determination, & enthusiasm for life.

Angie was preceded in death by her father, James Carlton Combs.

“ We both loved our children & grandchildren. We had many of trips in the car which gave us the opportunity to talk about life. I learned about her fear of tall things. We attended a Neil Diamond concert. We drove around & around in a circle in the car because Goggle maps said to. She loved Sonic Diet cokes & she would make daily trips for us. Loved her stories that never ended. Angie I will greatly missed you.

“ Before Angie had any grandkids, she "adopted" our daughter and bought her many baby items and clothes sets! She always supported us and wanted the best for our little family. We will always fondly remember Angie as a loving, caring, and giving woman who loved all of her "kids".

When Angie hired me back in July 2012, she and I became very good friends ❤️. She would tell everyone that I was her sister. She and I would talk about retirement and we decided we would retire at the same time. I am heartbroken 💔 that she is no longer here with us, but she will always be in my heart and the memories we all shared with her at HORV will forever be in my mind. She was one of a kind! We would have long talks if we had something on our mind. She was a great listener. I will miss you so much. Rest my sweet sister till we meet again.💕

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word... We may not understand why Angie left this earth so soon, or why she left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that she died, but that she lived and that her life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

For the family, may the love of those around you comfort you and help you through the days ahead.

“ I met Angie when she came administrator at heritage oaks she was a very sweet but firm lady she made sure the residents were top priority and if it meant her pitching in a hand to help on the floor where ever she was needed she was there and always lend a ear to listen to no matter what it was she made sure her best friend su'san was well cared before her passing and was there for you no matter what if the village walls could talk oh the stories you will surely be missed there are no words except perfection

“ Angie have me my start in Long term care. She taught me many things through the years. Before working for her she was a paramedic in Wellington. My dad was really bad at times and he was glad to see Angie when the ambulance arrived. Time and distance came between us but I will always be grateful to her for believing in me.
