“ Hoppy, I heard of your father's passing. Just wanted to send my condolences and say that I will put you in my prayers. Losing a parent is never easy no matter how long you have them with you and some of us have been more blessed in that area than others. Don't know if you remember me or not, but I am Ira Jean Boldon's daughter of Streetman. You and I were in the same class at Fairfield High. I remember your father and mother very well. Again, I'm very sorry for your loss.
