She was born April 11, 1953, in Corsicana, Texas, to Bill and Mary Jo Valentine. On June 18, 1971, Anita married her high school sweetheart, Milton Seldomridge, and together throughout their 53 years of marriage, they built a life full of love, laughter, and companionship. Their love story was a testament to their strong bond and devotion to one another. Her heart was filled with joy by her family, especially her grandchildren, great grandchildren, who lovingly referred to her as “Grandmommy,” and her two beloved dogs, Belle and Finley. Anita had a natural love for gardening and took immense pride in her beautiful flowers. She also enjoyed camping and found peace in the beauty and serenity of the outdoors. She dedicated over 25 years to Corsicana ISD, with most of those years spent at Bowie Elementary, where she served as the P.E. aide and was affectionately known as "Mrs. S" to the countless students whose lives she touched with her warmth and dedication. Prior to her time at Corsicana ISD, she worked at the state school in Mexia, Texas, showing the same compassion and care for others.

Anita was preceded in death by her father, Bill Valentine, brother, Ray Valentine, in-laws, Milton Sr. and Allene Seldomridge; and her grandparents, Werdna Bunkley and Stella Mae Hill, and H.O. and Ethel Valentine.

who adored her.

Anita's legacy of love, joy, and compassion will live on through the countless lives she touched. She will be remembered for her gentle spirit, her passion for life, and the deep love she had for her family, friends, and community.

“ I'm so sorry to see that she has passed. She was a very huge part of teaching me how to read in 6th grade and even a big influence on why I teach special education. She made my life better for what she taught me. Thank you for sharing her with us all those years ago. God bless her and may she rest in peace.
