

Ann Cobb Lewis

October 21, 1943 - March 5, 2020

Ann Cobb Lewis of Lanley, Texas passed away on March 5, 2020 in Tyler with her family by her side.

Mrs. Ann Cobb Lewis was born October 21, 1943 in Dallas, Texas at Parkland Hospital to Lewis L. Cobb and Velma Simons Cobb. Mrs. Lewis grew up in Dallas County. She attended Lancaster ISD. After school she went to work in a sewing factory in Dallas, to help provide for her other siblings. She met her husband Arthur J. Lewis. They got married in July of 1961. They spent 59 years of marriage together and had three children. Mrs. Lewis went to work for Dallas County ISD as a bus driver for the school of the deaf. They later started a fencing business in Dallas County. The Lewis's decided to relocate to Houston where they started AJ's Excavating. The business flourished and a few years later they relocated back to Dallas. They continued AJ's Excavating and also purchased a few country stores in Red Oak. She was a successful business owner. She retired and moved to the Lewis Ranch in 2008 for good. Mrs. Lewis loved to spend time with her family, work in her flower beds, going and getting her nails done every week, and she loved to go to Las Vegas to gamble. She also was the founder of Plum Creek Bluegrass Festival. She loved to shop, go on vacations, while spoiling her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur J. Lewis Sr of Lanley; parents, Lewis L. Cobb and Velma Simons Cobb of Dallas; daughter, Susie Lewis of Dallas; granddaughter, Brittany Wright of Lanley; brother, James D. Cobb of Dallas and one sister Ruth D. Cobb of Houston. She is survived by one son, Auther J. Lewis Jr.; daughter, Tammy Wright and husband George Wright Jr of Lanley; two sisters: Pat Stewart of Dallas and Shirley Dover of Dallas; two brothers: Teddie Cobb and Jr Cobb both of Lanley; one aunt Bessie Vest of Mexia; five grandchildren: Scooter Wright, Nikki Wright, William Wright all of Lanley; Jonathan Lewis of Waxahachie; and Jacob Lewis of Arlington; two great granddaughters Arayley Wright of Lanley and Brooklyn Lewis of Waxahachie.

“ Oh Annie. I have thot of all of ya'll so many times thru the years. The last time I saw u was when Jayne n I had gone to see Uncle Bill n then met you at a little restaurant on the way back. I remember your smile. It seems like u had such a infectious smile! I never got to meet Jake or your kids but I remember how much your Aunt Annie and Uncle Marvin always looked forward to your visits. I'm sure they were there with your Mom n Dad to help you cross that river. Suzy and I along with Anna Joyce sends our condolences and pray for peace and comfort for your family.
