“ Lee, was my hero when I was a child. I still remember how he would take time to build soap box cars for us kids to ride, and as we grew older he and Marie would take Johnny and me home to spend the night, and go to a movie, once he gave me some of his beloved Homing Pigeons to take home with me. I always loved him so, no one could have had a better cousin. Marie, Robert, and Amy I am so sorry for your loss my sympathy and prayers our for you, and the entire Bamburg family. Lee will never be forgotten, and I know he is healed, and healthy now, and in the arms of Jesus, and celebrating with Uncle Dude. Aunt Fay, Johnny, Wanda, and Linda, and my Mom, and Dad, and all the other beloved family members who have gone to be with the Lord. I love yall.
