“ *Mrs. Blue and Family,
I am deeply sorry to hear about your loss. I worked at Brookshire's and really looked forward to seeing yall come in everyday and have some sort of story to tell. You always brightened up the place. Mr.
Blue will be greatly missed.*

“ We spent many a football game sitting by Mr. & Mrs. Blue. What fans they were, and how much fun we had cheering on our Tigers.

I bet Heaven has some blue & gold on display today.

“ *Vickie and family - Randy and I extend our deepest sympathies.
Losing a parent is very difficult, as we know. Please know that you're being remembered in thought and prayer.*

“ I was so sorry to hear about Mr. Blue it always brightened my day to see his smiling face. He always had something nice to say and never met a stranger. We lost this game but heaven won and now he's in the superbowl. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and sweet wife. Sincerely: The Chambers

“ paw paw i wish i could have had one last chance to tell you that i love you. And im sorry for things i have done in the past. I would give anything to hear you tell me to suck it up just one more time. Regardless of us growing apart over the years i still looked as you as one of the only father figures i have ever had. You tought me how to mow the lawn start a weedeater and do things i should do and how to be a man. I love and miss you paw paw im missin u so much. Love les

“ I feel so blessed and honored to have known you! What a kind and wonderful person you were. Thank you for letting me be a part of your family and for the gift of your kindness and love.

Tressa, I am praying for you all. I can not imagine the grief you are feeling at this time. Praying that God will wrap you all in His love and be with you in your darkest hours. Your dad was a happy man and I remember his laughter and sense of humor! What a great life to celebrate!

“ My relationship to Aubrey is thru Catherine. Catherine was my father's sister.

I remember Aubrey from a very young age. My father, William Croft, Jr., thought very highly of his sister's choice in Aubrey. They both enjoyed teasing my Aunt and had a strong bond for the Corsicana Tiger football team.

Plus, they both loved my grandmothers homemade ice tea.

Aubrey & Catherine came to my wedding and Aubrey walked me down the aisle when my father could not attend.

It was fun to be around Aubrey even if you were on the receiving end of his jokes and pranks.

I will miss seeing him on my trips to Texas these past few years.

Much love to the rest of the family & especially to my Aunt Catherine.

Sincerely, Carolyn Wagner

“ I worked at Brookshires all through high school and am friends with his grandson Dylan. Mr. and Mrs. Blue came in everyday to Brooksires to drink coffee. I would always look forward to this time of day when I would get to see them and hear Mr. Blue go on about the football game that week or tell me one of his stories. He was a great man and will be missed by so many. I know he will be missed by my husband and I.
