“ To my brother Baldomero Sr., Janie, Lucy, Delia, Danny, Ernie, and Amanda:

Please accept our deepest condolences in the homegoing of Baldo. Dolores and I are saddened to learn of the loss of your son and brother and our brother and friend.

We treasure the beautiful memories of you as a family and Baldo when we lived in Corsicana and was your pastor. I remember Baldo well. Back in the early 70's Dolores and I took the young people of Calvario to Youth Camp. Baldo was always the best of the group. Later we saw him again in the mid 1990's. By then Baldo was married and with children. I saw in him a maturity beyond his years. In him I saw a person who was committed to God, his wife, children, his extended family, and his church.

In all the years we knew Baldo, he exhibited a character trait which made him a wonderful person, that is humility. Humility means power under control. What a great example for all of us. In his quiet unassuming way, his life spoke louder than words. His example in his life says it all.

The Corsicana area has lost a wonderful citizen, but heaven has gained an outstanding citizen in Baldo. Baldomero Sr. and family, know that Dolores and I will be praying for you. Thank you Amanda for informing us of his passing. Baldo is more alive today than we. He is enjoying a perfect life close to his beloved mother and Savior. You who remain will be in our prayers for comfort and strength.

*May the Bless you and Keep you...
Jimmy and Dolores*

He was a Christian man and he and his mother and the rest of you (his family) loves the Lord. They are now walking on the streets of gold. How wonderful it is to be with our Creator.
