While working in the cotton fields, he encountered the love of his life, Olivia Sendejo. Soon after in 1954, they were married and had seven children. Baldo & Olivia raised all their children on their ranch in Blooming Grove, Texas. They taught their children to work hard and to love the Lord. At every chance, he advised his loved ones to always praise the Lord and give thanks for all their blessings as he was proof that the Lord had blessed him.

He was an active member of Iglesia Bautista Calvario, a mission church that his parents with another Hispanic family helped start in 1963. He served as church treasurer, Sunday School director, and deacon.
