

Barbara June Dyer

October 8, 1945 - May 10, 2025

Barbara Stevenson Dyer went home to Jesus on May 10, 2025, surrounded by her family. Babs, as those she loved knew her, was born on October 8, 1945 in Blooming Grove, Texas to Fannie Lee and Malcolm “Mac” Stevenson. Her early years were filled with trips around the country while her father worked on the pipeline. Her cousins and her sister were her best friends. Although terribly shy, Babs enjoyed cheerleading, dancing, singing, and acting in her younger days. She graduated from Frost High and married her high school sweetheart Billy Gene Dyer in 1964. Together, they built a beautiful family with their daughter, Brook, and son, Brandon. They were members of Midlothian Bible Church where Babs donated innumerable Wednesday nights listening to memory verses and passing out AWANA awards alongside her husband. Babs was also a talented artist and enjoyed sewing, painting, coloring, and making her own greeting cards. She loved her family, traveling around the state to watch band contests, listen to concerts, and watch soccer games for her children and, later, her grandchildren. In retirement, Babs enjoyed family, lunches with friends, and a lifelong dream trip to Israel.

Babs will be greatly missed by her daughter Brook Campbell and her husband Clay of Fort Worth; son Brandon Dyer and his wife Jennifer of Mansfield. “Mimi” is survived by her grandchildren Cody Campbell and his wife Rachel of Midlothian; Luke Campbell and wife Ana of Galveston; Samuel Campbell of Wichita Falls; Lauren Dyer Conroy and her husband Joel of Kennedale;

Rachel Dyer of Mansfield; and great-grandchildren, Adelyn and Atlas. Barbara is also survived by her brothers Jim Dugan and his wife Julie of Corpus Christi, Mike Dugan and his wife Sherry of Maypearl, and brother-in-law Buddy Dyer of Fort Worth. Babs was the true example of a Proverbs woman. She loved God's people well.

Pallbearers are her grandsons Cody Campbell, Luke Campbell, Sam Campbell, Joel Conroy and her nephews Kalen Hargrove and Cory Dugan.
