“ I know that you feel all is lost. I have been where you are right now. The pain will ease...the scars remain...just remember that God let you have that joy...on borrowed time...and now he needs his angel back. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to ease your heart. Yesterday is History...Today is a Mystery...Tomorrow is a Gift....My family prays for your family. God bless you.

“ Tina,

Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts & prayers! It was such a shock to both of us when we heard the news of Ben and Laura! Be comforted in knowing that Ben is in the loving arms of our Lord & Saviour! God will comfort you in this difficult time. I can not believe that I have not seen Ben since he was 11 years old. What a handsome young man he was! Tina, we both love you dearly and know that we are hear for you for anything that you should need, even just to talk! You helped me so much during my difficult time so much years ago, and I have not forgotten what you said to me! Susanna does not have an email address so I told her that I would include her in my message to you. She wants you to know that she is here for you also.

“ I did not know him but I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to all of the family and friends left behind. He was taken too soon from this life. May God bless you with peace at this difficult time. With God's love-a mother that also had a child taken too soon.

“ To; The Family of Benjamin Mora,
I know that God didn't promise us the sunshine without the rain; light without darkness; or joy without the pain. But He did promise us strenght for the day when sorrows come and we lose our way. But only through those sorrows will we grow more aware, that God will be our refuge in the time of despair. Praying for you and your family at this difficult time. Ben will truely be missed. Hold on to God's unchanging hand for weeping may endureth for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. God Bless You!

“ Ben was one of my students in health science technology last year. He was such a great young man, a hard worker, never complained, always happy and kind to others. You raised a fine young man. My heart is broken for you at this time. I did not see the newspaper until after the funeral, so I apologize for not being able to pay my last respects to Ben, he was one of my favorites. My prayers will be with you daily that the Lord will bring peace and comfort to your family.

Sincerely,
Amy Bonner

“ Ben,
I just want u to know and remember that I love you and i miss you. Remember, that one day in Mrs. Swansons class, there were like pieces of the end of the desk missing and you would make fun of me because u would tell me that i was so hungry that i ate the table?? Well that was pretty funny and i'm always gonna remember that. Well, just remember i love you!!!!!!!!!!
