“ I remember spending the night at Shirley's house when we were younger and Betty driving that big car with the knob on the steering wheel to make the turns quicker. I was fascinated and scared at the same time.

“ Momma....I can't put into words how I feel right now. ..I know you are happy now and in a better place. All our visits everyday at lunch to the talks and laughs we shared...I will never forget any of those times with you.... You have been my rock and strength over the years and I guess that is where I get my strength from....but right now im not too strong. I will miss my visits and all the times we shared but I know we will meet again...Thank you for making me the woman I am today and you will always be in my heart and on my mind. Give Daddy and Bubba a kiss for me and we will be together again. I Love You and Miss you so much....I will be okay in time and I know you will be telling me to stop crying that you are doing just fine. RIP MOMMA.....I LOVE YOU.
