“ Dear Sandra, Kenneth, and Gary,

I am so sad for the loss of Patsy and extend to you and your families my deepest condolences. I wish I could be at the visitation and funeral this afternoon, but the distance is too great.

I will always remember Patsy's love of reading. About ten or fifteen years ago, she called me out of the blue one day to discuss a book she was reading titled THE ORIGIN OF CONSCIOUSNESS IN THE BREAKDOWN OF THE BICAMERAL MIND. That cumbersome title should give you a clue about the difficulty of the text. It turns out that I had actually read the book when I was in graduate school at Harvard. She and I subsequently had several phone conversations about that book and the philosophical issues it raised. Whenever I think of her, I will always remember her willingness to tackle a Harvard graduate text. She was a smart woman, and I will miss her.

*Your cousin,
Mark Muesse*
