“ What can I say? Bill was the other half of Connie Mimms and our friends since 1989 when we were their pastors in frost. Bill GOT BORN AGAIN also. he used to sit on the edge of the pew with tears flowing and loved 'victory in Jesus' and we sang it. he wrote a wonderful song for pastor appreciation day one yr. and then sang in sept 2019 at my husband's homegoing-called it 'preacher man'; also wrote I'm paid up and prayed up and ready to go to the house-well he's there and I'm not-but I will be. Bill, Josh, Mirassa came to ok to help me in the pasture 2020-what a time we had. too many stories to tell-love you man'

“ I was trying to recall a specific memory to share but I just keep hearing Brother Mimms pick on me lol. He picked on me about EVERYTHING from my height to my accent, but he always picked out of love. I am glad I was lucky enough to A. be on his good side and B. enjoy the laughs, inspirations, and scolding's that came along with knowing and loving Bill. My thoughts and prayers are with all that were lucky enough to know and love Bill.
