

Billie Verlyn Robinson

May 10, 1931 - August 3, 2023

Billie Verlyn Blailock Robinson was born on May 10, 1931, in Thomastown, Mississippi. Billie lived a full and very active life for 92 years. Billie married the love of her life, Jack Robinson, and they enjoyed 69 years of marriage. Billie moved to California during the Korean war to remain by Jack's side as a military wife while he served in the Army. She worked with military personnel with the Civil Service. After the war, they settled in Houston and raised their three sons, Jay, Barry, and Rodney. Billie faithfully and actively served in the church teaching, singing, and assisting her husband with their music ministry at different churches. In 1978, they moved to Corsicana. Billie was preceded in death by her son Jay in 2004 and her husband Jack in 2021. She is survived by her two sons, Barry and wife Sharon, and Rodney and wife Brenda. She is also survived by three grandsons, three great grandsons and numerous nieces and nephews.

She had a favorite verse in the Bible that meant a lot to her:

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. (Psalm 19:14)

Memorials may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Visitation will be Monday, August 7 from 6-8 p.m. at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Graveside services will be at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, August 8 at
