“ My daddy was the most kind, caring and loving man I have ever known. The memories span 50 yrs for me. He was my hero. He was someone I could confide in. Granted, I hadn't spent much time with him before his passing, I know that my daddy loved me as much as I loved him. It puts joy in my heart knowing that he has been reunited with our mother and that he is no longer in pain, walking on streets of gold with mom.

He loved fishing and staying busy. He was crafty. There wasn't anything he couldn't fix or build. Daddy loved sweets salt water taffy and the coconut planks there's really too much to list. Most of all he loved our mom. The day she passed away he really did too. His life goal after she passed was to make his way back to her. He loved all 9 of their children his numerous grand kids and the passel of great grands there is. I will never forget you and I will continue to miss you daily as I do mom, But I know that someday I will see you again and until then hug momma for me and save me a spot.. love #9
