

Billy Wayne Turner

September 13, 1967 - February 1, 2020

Billy “Wayne” Turner, of Mertens, Texas passed from this life on February 1, 2020 in Dallas, Texas. Wayne was born on September 13, 1967 in Grapevine. He is survived by his wife Stacy Watson Turner; parents, Sue Baty and Don Pevehouse; step-father Gilbert Vosburg; son, Cody Turner; siblings Mark Turner and wife Phyllis, Greg Baty and Shawna Pyles and a special Uncle, Troy Hodges. He is also survived by Bryce Watson and family Kyla, Aiden and Walker, father and mother-in-law, Dwayne and Pat Watson; brothers and sisters-in-law Joey and Sallie Watson, Brad and Belinda Branstetter and Benny and Becky Melton. Wayne is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Wayne was employed by NT Windows in Fort Worth. He has also worked for General Aluminum, PlyGem, VistaMark and Cardinal IG. He was very skillful and knowledgeable and well respected in the window industry.

Wayne was a devoted husband and grandfather. He was an overgrown kid who was generous, genuine and loyal with an irreplaceable loving heart. He was better known as Pops to Aiden and Walker. Stacy and the boys were the light of his life. He was continually improving the home and acreage he and Stacy shared, as well as entertaining the grandchildren with tractor and gator rides, and other outside activities.

Wayne enjoyed deer hunting and raising chickens; however his passion was restoring and showing Hot Rods. He could often be found tinkering around in his shop. Pop’s latest restoration project was a go cart for Aiden. He was very proud of the 1931 Model A that he restored and won numerous prizes with at local car shows.

Visitation for family and friends will be Thursday, February 6 at Griffin-Roughton funeral home from 6:00 to 8:00p.m. A funeral service will be held at First Baptist Church in Mertens at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, February 7 with Bro. Seth Fuller officiating. Interment will be at Richland Cemetery immediately following.
