“ When we were little kids Aunt Boobie let us clean her bathroom or car for fifty cents. While fifty cents does not sound like much today, back then you could buy penny candy (one piece of candy cost one penny). So for a little kid, fifty cents got you a whole lot of candy. One of the highlights of my childhood!

“ I miss her so much. She was always helping anyone that needed help. She was a Aunt to most of the children in Frost. Shbaby-sittered them. My son named a dance after her called the boggy. She was my big sister.

“ Bobbie you were a wonderful sister and I will miss you forever. I could not have worked and raised my children after their Dad passed away without your help. You were always there anytime and for anyone that needed help. Rest in peace and tell Momma I miss and love her. Give Jadon a kiss fir me.
