“ Bobby and my brother, Don, were best friends growing up. If the two of them weren't playing ball and riding their bikes, they were giving me a lot of grief!! Bobby and his family were always very special to me. My sincerest sympathy to Bobby's loved ones.

“ My deepest sympathy to Bobby’s children and family. He was loved and remembered here in Bowie . The Ford, Richey, and Wilson families were close friends of mine and I’m thankful for the many good memories. I worked with Bobby’s mother, Bonnie during the 50’s-60’s at First National Bank. Thank you so much for the pictures and the Tribute Wall.
A full and happy life is a blessing. May those good memories bring comfort.

“ Bobby was a treasured employee of Graves Tire Company but also a friend of my parents. He certainly is reunited now with his beautiful bride Beverly who was just as nice as he was. He was always kind to me and certainly one of my favorites. Condolences to all of you, family and friends.
