I remember Ms. Bonnie telling me she needed a new Bible because she couldn't read the small print in hers. My son, Brandon, wanted to give her his. He brought it to the nursing home and told her it was his, but he felt she needed it more since the print was large, and he had another one at home. I remember her sleeping with that Bible in her bed. I used to so enjoy bringing her "goodies" when I brought them to my mama, Billie Little, her roommate at Fairview. Some of her favorites were shrimp and fountain diet Pepsi (from Jolly's), and chocolate pie (Something Different) and Chicken and Dumplings (I45) and she loved her Big Reds too. It made me happy to see the happiness it brought her. I loved Ms. Bonnie, getting to be her nurse at ETMC Fairfield and her friend at Fairview. She will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ I just wanted to be the first to say we will miss our Bonnie. I know she knew how much she was loved because it showed through her smile. I always knew I had a support person NO matter the situation. She NEVER turned her back on her kids. She loved her family and was so proud of her Doug and Debbie, but she also loved and cared for so many of us growing up. Thanks Bonnie Davis for having my back and being there for me. You are a true friend, and will be forever alive in our hearts. Rest in peace now. And just for the continuation of competitiveness for Bonnie's attention, I would like to note, Tracie Harris Ezell, you lost. I was first.
