

Brad Haynie

November 27, 1947 - December 4, 2022

Corsicana lost a great man on Sunday, December 4 when Brad entered the mighty gates of Heaven. He was often referred to as Mr. Corsicana or Mr. Derrick Days because of his involvement in and love for his hometown. Bradley Neil Haynie was born in Corsicana on November 27, 1947, to Johnie Neil Haynie and Geraldine Carden Haynie. He was raised in Corsicana and graduated from Corsicana High School where he lettered in football and Navarro College where he played baseball. He was known to his friends as Big Heart. He attended North Texas University and majored in Advertising Art before returning to Corsicana to help with the family business, Haynie Drilling Co. He managed Haynie Drilling as well as assisting with Haynie Towing for many years. Brad served in the US Army Medical Reserves for 5 years. He also was an officer for the Corsicana Police Department in the 70s. He was a member of Northside Baptist Church for over 60 years and served as a Deacon there. He loved listening to live music, especially his brother Byron. Brad was a hard-working well-respected businessman. He loved Corsicana and the people in it. He always had a big hug, kiss on the cheek, and a funny story or joke to share with everyone to make them smile. Brad always tried to stay positive and lead others to better our community by making it something to be proud of.

Brad has been involved in many community organizations and endowed with several special community awards including the following:

“ Brad's Loved Ones,
I was so very sorry to read of Brad's passing.
I don't suppose he ever met a stranger. All were welcomed with warmth and graciousness.
[May] the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, ... guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ___Phillippians 4:7
You will be in our thoughts and prayers,
Guy and Ailsa
