

Bradley Homan

December 10, 1956 - July 8, 2024

Bradley Homan, age 67, passed away at his residence on July 8, 2024. Bradley was born on December 10, 1956, to Stokes Homan and Helen Francine Patterson in Salisbury, Maryland.

Bradley is survived by his loving wife, Stacie Homan; his daughter, Katie Crews, and her husband, Ron; and his brother, Howard Homan, and his wife, Mary. He is preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Dale Homan.

Bradley was a man of many passions and talents. He loved to fish and found great joy in restoring old houses, bringing new life to them with his skill and dedication. His love for the outdoors extended to landscaping, where he took pride in creating beautiful surroundings. Bradley was also a gamer, often playing the same video games as his daughter, a hobby that strengthened their bond. He had a deep appreciation for theater and enjoyed acting in local theater productions, showcasing his creativity and love for the arts. In addition to his many hobbies, Bradley was a talented cook who delighted in preparing meals for his family and friends.

Cremation arrangements are under the compassionate care of Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. In accordance with his wishes, no services are scheduled.

Bradley's memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
He will be deeply missed.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ I grew up with Brad near the park in Salisbury, MD. We collected baseball cards, enjoyed fishing, sledding in the park when it snowed, Played Little league. So sorry to see this.

Dave Haemel - February 10, 2025 at 08:08 PM