

Bryan Scott Dyson

November 2, 1957 - June 7, 2025

Bryan Scott Dyson, age 67, of Corsicana, Texas, passed away on June 7, 2025 at Baylor University Medical Center. He was born on November 2, 1957, in Ganado, Texas, to parents Travis and Sherry Dyson.

Scott proudly dedicated over 27 years to a career in law enforcement, serving his community with strength and commitment. He worked with various agencies including the sheriff's office and Rice ISD Police Department. He was also a proud member of the Blue Knights Motorcycle Club, a group of law enforcement officers bonded by service and camaraderie.

He is survived by his father, Travis Dyson; his daughters, Ashlee Folmar and husband Ronny, and Brittany Ragan and husband Rickey; his brothers, Shawn Dyson and Sam Dyson; and his cherished grandchildren: Paizlee Ragan, Brandon Folmar and wife Brittany, Savannah Folmar, Justin Folmar, and Bella Folmar.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Sherry Dyson, and his brother, Travis Michael Dyson.

Scott was a man who loved the outdoors—especially fishing and hunting—and he never missed a Dallas Cowboys game. But above all, he loved his family deeply and found joy in the time he spent with them.

Visitation will be held on Friday, June 13, 2025, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home.

Scott will be remembered for his dedication, his laughter, and the legacy of love and service he leaves behind.

“ Scott was a noble man that lived and worked hard for the community of Rice. He was a friend that would come help anyone with just a phone call. Always smiling, and friendly with everyone. He watched over us all like a Papa bear.

There are so many stories and memories to tell from him running across the pasture chasing an escape to putting my youngest one in the backseat of his car when he was 6. The football antics on the sidelines. The 4H events to help the kids in the community to the Jr. High parties at my house He was always there, always helping. He was a giver and a great friend. Thank you for all the great memories.

May you rest in peace. Sending my deepest heartfelt condolences, love and prayers to all of you.

Kim Marshall.
