“ Tracie, I am so sorry to hear about your Grandfather (Daddy). I just was told about it today by Debra Calhoun. I don't really read the paper. I remember Johnny real well. He was a nice and quiet man. As I was growing up I would still see him and your Grandmother (Mom) walking and would speak to them. They are such nice people. I know that Johnny will be missed, and he was loved by many. I wold see them sitting on the front porch as I drove by and I would wave at them for years. When they moved away it felt weired not seeing them anymore after knowing them for so long. Well take comfort in knowing that he is with his Creator. Love to you and your family.

“ Daddy,

You are the reason I am the person I am today and I will always be grateful.

It was you who taught me how to be myself, to catch an armadillo by his tail, to bait my hook, and right from wrong. I miss you so much and I will never forget all the good times we shared. Mom is being well taken care of so don't you worry.

You are now free from all the pain and suffering and flying with the angels. As I sleep tonight I know you will be watching over us from above and keeping us safe.

I love you daddy.

“ With much love and respect we send our condolences to Grandma, Donna, Marilyn, Ricky and Juanita. Grandpa will be missed but never forgotten. We include him in our prayers nightly and he will be in our thoughts and actions daily.

I am so sorry that I can not make the funeral. I really want to be there to support my family and pay my respect to grandpa but I can not make it.

Grandpa - You are an inspiration to me and I know you are looking down on all of us with a smile on your face and hopefully with a feeling of happiness in your heart! We love you forever and ever!

“ Allene, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I hope this prayer will bring you comfort.

A PRAYER AT THE DEATH OF A SPOUSE

Thank you Father, for giving us as much time together as we had. Spare me now from further pain of self pity. I accept the fact that I have no right to expect that I can be so highly privileged as to never taste sorrow in my lifetime. This is my time to experience a cross and I do so bravely.

I remember with joy and gratitude our wedding day. You made no promise to us then, guaranteeing a fixed number of years together. I thank you for what we have had, and I will not think about what we could have had.

I will look now at what I have left, not at what I have lost. I thank you Father, that there was no ignoble scene of angry parting, only the honored call of God who has glorified our marriage with the call of Eternity.

My tears are tears of love and gratitude. I thank you that our love for each other is still alive.

I sense that I am surrounded by an invisible presence and power of an indescribable love. It is the comfort of your Spirit. I praise you God and Father for your goodness.

I have tasted grief, but I will not have wasted grief. Make me into a softer, gentler soul.....Amen

“ It's Never easy to lose the presence of our loved ones. Recently we experienced the loss of our dear loving Mother. We believed the Angels came to take her home. Likewise we believe that the Angels carried Clarence Home. We will Miss him.

*The Golden Chariot?s
When we get the call, to make heaven our home
God will send a host of angels, ten thousand strong
In a Golden Chariot, for a child of the King
What a glorious ride, thru the Pearly Gates that will be
Where my Lord and Savior is waiting to welcome me
The Bells in Heaven will Ring, and the angles will sing
We will rejoice on the streets of Gold
In a land that we will never grow old*

“ Words cannot even begin to express the pain I feel. I will always miss grandpa... I will forever hold his memory deep inside my heart! I will always be grateful for the love we shared and knowing that I have a special angel watching over me up there. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort us all tomorrow. Grandma, stay strong and know that grandpa loved you very much. He might be gone but will NEVER be forgotten! I LOVE YOU!!!

RIP Grandpa- you will be missed and I love you!
