

C.W. Johnson

July 2, 1935 - March 1, 2014

C.W. Johnson went peacefully to be with the Lord on March 1, 2014. Mr. Johnson was born on July 2, 1935 in Mildred, Texas to Conard and Zulia Johnson.

After graduating from Mildred High School he married his high school sweetheart Mearile Cofield and was married for 50 years. They lived in Corsicana, Lubbock and Clovis, New Mexico before they settled down in Arlington where they raise their 5 children. He retired after 32 years from Vought to his home town of Mildred, Texas. He spent his finale days in Arlington with his family and under the care of Vitas hospice that helped with the transition from this life to the next.

He was preceded in death by his wife Mearile and son Brian.

He is survived by son Wynn Johnson; daughters and son-in-law, Debbie and Lynn Bullard, Stacy and Gayle Bean; son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Kim Johnson; daughter-in-law, Karen Johnson; brother and sister-in-law Roy and Pat Johnson and sister and brother-in-law Marybeth and Chester Long; brother-in-law and sister-in-law Keith and Dorothy Weaver; brother-in-law, Mack McElroy and David and Alice Cofield; eleven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

Visitation will be Monday, March 3, 2014 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Graveside service will be 2:00 pm Tuesday, March 4, 2014 at Eureka Cemetery.

“ What a wonderful experience it have known CW! He was very very proud of his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. We enjoyed the wonderful stories he told us.

We enjoyed bringing him vanilla shakes, but he did let it be known that chocolate was his favorite. So from then on it was chocolate!

He was always positive about his health issues. We will NEVER forget him. Rest in peace CW.
