“ I am so very sorry for your loss Judy, Harold, Caleb and Christopher. I met Cameron at our dental office when he was just a child. He was and grew in to a such a fine young man. We here at Dr. Gallup's office will dearly miss him. Just know that our hearts too are heavily burdened. God Bless and know we love you like family for you all have been part of our family over the years.

“ Judy and Harald,
I was so sorry to learn of Cameron passing away. I know that right now words probably won't seem to help much, but I would like to tell you that a lot of people are praying for you both. I pray that right now God will just wrap His loving arms around you and give you that "peace that passes all understanding" as only He can give. May you sense His presence in a real way. May God be with you, especially the next few days, weeks, and months. Love you, Pat Owen

“ Harald, Judy and family,
We pray that God will comfort your hearts with the "peace that passeth understanding." As Paul said, "we sorrow but not as those who have no hope." The blessed assurance and hope of the resurrection take on new meaning when you lose a child. We love and appreciate you and wish this had not happened.
In God's love,

“ Harald, Judy & Family, We were shocked and saddened to hear about Cameron. We don't know the words to say that can possibly comfort your broken hearts, but we do know that our Lord and Saviour can give you comfort and peace that only He can provide. We will uplift all of you in prayer and please know that we are here for you should there be anything at all we can do for you. Loving you in Christ.

“ I was so saddened to hear about Cameron's tragic accident. I was his English III teacher and completely adored him. We often commiserated about wearing braces. He was a wonderful artist, writer, and student. His family and many friends will be in in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. He made a difference, even in his short life, and will be missed. May God's grace be with all those grieving.

“ We are so shocked and saddened with the loss that has occurred and we are also rejoicing knowing that Cameron is now in perfect peace and is in a place where he knows he belongs. He can now rejoice and praise and rest. The loss that you all are feeling now has got to be so great that we can't even imagine. We are so sorry for your loss and we want you to know that you are in our prayers. We will be glad to help any way we can, just let us know what we can do. We love you all!

“ I am so sorry for the loss that the family and friends are experiencing. It is so very unfortunate and sad to hear of someone so young being involved in a tragic event like this. There are not words that take the pain or feelings away.
Hopefully all that were close to Cameron can lean on each another and be strong in their time of need.
All of the family and friends will definitely be in my thoughts and prayers..
