“ Sweetest Cammy - we wanted more time with you so much. You fought so hard and tried to do everything possible. But we are left with broken hearts and the most precious memories. So grateful that God has provided a way where we will see you again and never say goodbye again. See you soon sweet angel lady! Love you.

“ I worked with Cammy for years at Chaney's Tobacco Station she was one of a kind. We became good friends, yet we often fought like cats and dogs mostly over politics lol. She was kind and fearless she fought her battle with cancer with fortitude and dignity. She was truly an inspiration. Her love of animals was always at the forefront rescuing kittens, dogs and racoons out of dumpsters. She will be sorely missed.
