“ *Carlos was a man of integrity, courage, and a true friend to me. He served as a deacon at our church with strength and conviction. Many times he stood with me as a fellow-servant and showed a true servant's heart. He never wavered in the difficult times, and was a constant source of wisdom and encouragement. Our church was blessed to have such a man in our family of faith, and I consider it a privilege to have known him as a brother and friend.
