

Cassius O'Shay Phillips

September 21, 1986 - December 25, 2021

Cassius O'Shay "O" Phillips, 35, of Corsicana, Texas, died on December 25, 2021. He was born on September 21, 1986, to two loving parents, Cassias and De'Renda Phillips, in Dallas, Texas.

O'Shay attended Mildred Independent School District where he enjoyed playing several sports, including baseball and football, and formed life-long friendships. Upon graduation, he attended Navarro College and the University of Texas at Tyler, where he played collegiate baseball.

On March 20, 2012, O'Shay and Torie Wallace, celebrated the birth of his pride and joy, Colt McClain Phillips.

He worked as an Oil & Gas Pumper and later was employed with the Valley View Cattle Company.

His hobbies included fishing, playing sports, and spending quality time with friends and family. O'Shay accepted Christ into his life at the age of 7 at Mildred Baptist Church and later became a part of the Cowboy Church of Corsicana family.

O'Shay led a remarkable life, where his influence knew no bounds. He was witty, intelligent, and known to pull a prank (or several) on friends and family. He would often leave funny messages for his friends at school. O'Shay held a deep love and empathy for anyone that he met.

His strength was demonstrated in his many athletic pursuits on the high school and collegiate level. His perseverance, despite a heart condition, did not prevent him from a good laugh or making others feel special.

O'Shay is survived by his son, Colt McClain Phillips; his grandmother, Mrs. Sue Ray; his parents, Cassias and De'Renda Phillips; and his sister, LaVonna Phillips.

He was preceded in death by his beloved grandparents, Freddie B. and Sarah Phillips and Wilmer Ray.

Visitation will be 6:00pm - 8:00pm Monday, January 3, 2021, at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home in Corsicana, TX. Funeral services will be 11:00am Tuesday, January 4, 2022, at the Cowboy Church of Corsicana with Derek Rogers officiating.

Pallbearers will be Ricky Atkeisson, Chris Dozier, Marcus Kincade, Richard Lacy, Joel

Wright, and James Jiles. Honorary pallbearers are Shaquille Johnson, Kevin Lewis, Otis Murrell, Sherard Ray, David Walker, Deveion Wilson, and Dejuan Wilson.

Memorials and donations may be made to the official GoFundMe page for O'Shay Phillips by Jessica Atkeisson.

“ I was Blessed to get to know O'Shay when I was his nurse this past summer 2021. Normally I don't like any people, instantly I knew he was a most special kid. I recognized right away he was a Cowboy; an Old Soul from way back. I was Blessed to know you O'Shay, you are gone way too soon! I will never forget how his eyes lit up with love when he talked about his son, Colt! Sorry we never made it to Cowboy Church, we will go in your Honor, my friend! Trace & Lisa Moffatt

“ De'Renda and Cassius,

I am so sorry for your loss. O'shay lit up a room when he entered. His beautiful smile was infectious. I remember one day O'Shay came into the Trading Post and spoke to everyone, when he left, a truck driver (not from the area) asked me who he was and told me "that's a great young man, his parents must be very proud" We will miss him very much. All my love.

“ I worked with him, he was a bright soul in our store, he posed for many, many ads & promos, for Cavenders, he left & went to the Oil Field to better provide for his family. He was always smiling that Infectious smile, especially when he was pulling a good prank! Rest in Peace my friend! You are greatly missed already!

“ The day I met O'Shay, Pastor Derek called him up to the alter and testified on his behalf of what he had accomplished and how much O'Shay had touched his heart. That same day, I was blessed to meet his beautiful mother while shopping after church. I should have realized I had met a genuine Angel. O'Shay, Jesus called you to His kingdom and left a huge void that cannot be filled. Rejoice young man.

“ Man there was never a dull moment at Mildred High School when O'Shay was around. His personality was amazing. To lining up on the football field with him or the track to baseball he was the type of person you definitely wanted on your team. This definitely takes me back down memory lane to my brother Jeremy. I'm gonna truly miss him. I love you brother!!
