“ I have known Charles and his family, my family all of my life. I grew up around Charles. I loved his mother like my own. I am sorry to hear of his passing. I just this day, June, found out of his passing. I also did not get notified of his wife's passing. I would of been there for your family. They were loved.

“ My basic memories of Charles consist of a vibrant man in his 40's with a smile in his eyes, working hard, sweating hard, and always playful.

When I was a teenager I helped him haul hay for his dairy. Many times it was just the two of us. I found it hard to tell him "not today". He was going to do it anyway and he needed the help.

I have a photo of my high school graduation where I am walking down the aisle and he and Bobbie are in the audience.

Even now, I sometimes greet a mutual friend from Emhouse with "Ah ou doin?" and I'll answer a "yes" question with "mmm" and a nod.

Because of Charles, I am not afraid to work hard and get unbelievably sweaty and dirty. I try to do it with a smile in my eyes and keep it playful.
