“ We'll always remember the time we visited you in Texas. We had such fun as Charles took us on the grand tour of Frost-the general store-where we had a soda pop, the cotten gin, the football field and the church. We also saw the home of where you could get the best fried chicken in Texas.

We met some of the geriatric horses and dogs.

May God be with you

“ Charlie was the type of guy that when you met him, you liked him instantly. He would do anything he could for anyone. He enjoyed visiting with friends, family and meeting people. Charlie was very active in his church and community. He especially loved helping and working with children. I know he is with God now and at peace. Our prayers are with Beth, the rest of his family and friends. God BLESS YOU ALL.

“ I considered Charlie a great friend and truly one of the brightest of my memories of Navarro College and the New Horizons Band. His joy in playing his sax and his upbeat personality and sense of humor were inspirational and unforgettable.
