“ Hi. I just wanted to thank everybody for being there for my family when they needed you the very most, I want to thank my parents for raising me the very best they knew how to do, because I have turned out very good so far in my life. I miss my granddad deeply, and I apologize for not being at the funeral I just wanted to remember him the way he was before he passed on. The reason why I'm just now typing is because my boyfriend from back in Sante Fe, Texas sent his obituary to me and I got it a couple weeks ago, and I didn't think that I was ready to admit to myself that he had passed because I always wanted him to be there when I got married to my handsome prince!!! Well thank you once again and God Bless ya'!!!!

“ It was such an honor to help you through those hard days and nights. I got to know you so much better in months than I did in earlier years. I loved hearing your jokes and your smile always made me smile. I'll always remember the night that we stayed up talking about Aunt Anis' house. That was a night to remember. My deepest gratitude to all of those that helped my Dad in his time of illness. Dad never met a stranger in his life.

“ It was such a pleasure to care for Mr. Goode. He has such a loving, supportive family and he was truly blessed by you all caring for him during his illness. He always made me smile. Everytime my car is dirty I think of him telling me I need to put my husband to work washing that filthy car!
Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your lives.

“ Mrs. Goode

I am so sorry for your loss. I met Mr. Goode working at HEB in the Pharmacy some yrs back. He was one of the best customers I had. He was always polite and caring. Always was in a good mood. He always had some joke to tell me or some funny story. That is if he was not picking on me and giving me a hard time. He always wanted to know how I or my family was doing. He always wanted to see any new pictures I had of my little one. I really enjoyed getting to know him. He was a really sweet person. I am going to miss him. I pray that you will find peace and comfort in your time of need. You and your family will be in my prayers. May God bless you all.

Love,

He did not have a relative playing but was as loyal as anyone. You will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers and he will forever be remembered.
