“ Uncle Ted, you will be missed! You were loved by so many! I have to say, I'm going to miss a few things that my Uncle Ted use to make. The infamous bean patties, 😊 with that amazing homemade salsa and of course I cannot go without mentioning his beans and jalapeño corn bread! He was an amazing cook, gardener, father to his children and most of all an amazing husband to my Aunt Earline! You will definitely be missed, but never forgotten! ❤️🙏✝️

“ Our lives will never be the same without you here but our hearts will always be filled with your everlasting love. You taught me many lessons, including how to properly pour a glass of iced tea or how to skunk everyone at the poker table. Most importantly you taught me that the love between a father and daughter doesn't have to only be shared by those blood related. You accepted me into your family as your daughter in law, but always loved me as your daughter. I will be here to walk beside your son, caring for him while always and forever keeping your memory alive in our hearts. Rest in peace Dad.

I've known and loved you since birth. I never saw you do anything of shame, so there is never a bad memory. You were a solid rock to my mother, me and my children. You had a really rough start in life yourself, but you learned to be a strong, independent and loving person. You helped me through the darkest struggles in my life when Ray passed away. I may have been a widow at 22yo, but you made sure I was not alone, and you made sure my children had the best Pawpaw growing up. When you married mama, you promised me you would make her happy. You did your best to keep that promise. I loved all our talks and sharing our favorite things, gardening, canning and cooking, fishing, camping, casino trips and get togethers. All the simple everyday things. Your eyes lit up when I told you to step up on my new zero turn lawn mower. You were hooked on the very first ride. You had to have one! As you were getting older and having surgeries, I showed you how to grow no dig potatoes in a laundry basket. You couldn't wait to dump them out to harvest. It was like Christmas morning to you! You laughed and grinned about how easy it was and beamed holding the biggest ones! It was a game changer, and you said you would never grow potato's in the ground dig them ever again. I loved watching you play at the casino and win. I gave you advice to play the machine beside you if you hit a jackpot. Then you won double jackpots! You gave me advice to "play till you win. Then run!" I did. The only drawback was paying federal taxes at the end of the year. That was okay though, because I was still a winner. We became a team. In everything, you backed me and mama 100% . I loved we never kept score. We just took care of each other and lived simple, yet absolutely true. I loved that you never thought of me as a stepdaughter, only your daughter. You defined what a real father was supposed to be. There was no room for the word "step." I'm going to miss you and I'm going to remember you always. And I will miss giving you your haircuts and our talks and plans we always made together, and you know I will keep my promises to take good care of mama and your Missy Girl. You hug my other Daddy, Ray, David, Amy's daddy Donny and his mother Charlene and my 2 grand babies I never got to hold, my grandma and grandpa Kiger, my Uncle Gene, Uncle Eddie and Ruthie, Aunt Marilyn, Carolyn, Margaret and Larry, Pat and everyone you see that we loved. I'll be at the starting line of the heavenly gates for the race to see you all again! Thank you for being a great Dad!!! I will always love you so very much!
