“ When I first came to Corsicana about 5 years ago, I met Charlie out at Richland Chambers Lake. Charlie cleared my lot to build our house. He was a very good man and will be missed. Me and my wife had alot of good talks with Charlie over the years. He always had good suggestions of how to do things. Me and my wife liked him alot.

“ C G was always thought of as a special person. Was fun saying hello to him through the years. I think he was in that far row of the Mildred study hall when I sat in the 7th grade row. I did not remain in the Eureka area but I relished meeting up with all of you with the name Rash.

“ C.G. I will miss you terribly, we had some good long talks on my patio, drinking our tea and arguing about our family tree, I have to admit you knew more than I did about it. I felt like the longer I could keep you talking the longer you would rest, which was almost impossible. You were the hardest working person that I have ever known. I love you and God speed you into his arms.

“Memories of Our Papaw”

Sifting through the memories of a well known childhood time, in a little town called Richland where we built our family ties. It was a town of our own, a family that people all knew, a perfect peace of heaven, and a land where flowers bloomed.

A closely knitted family and where distance had no place. Just a skip across the road and you would find a smiling face. Hearing echoes of laughter as the children ran and played, chasing lightening bugs, playing hide and seek, counting stars, and jumping on bails of hay.

Dinner was never late and just a shout out of the door, time to eat and take your bath, say your prayers and thank the lord.

A man known as CG Rash made this place home. He created his family, raised them well and taught them right from wrong. On that same street his children grew and had kids of their own, they did the same and raised them well and Richland was their home

That is who I am, I am one of those kids and I was raised by everyone. I had mom and dad, uncles, aunts, cousins and so much more. My papaw Charlie Rash made my childhood memories fun, countless rides on his dump trucks underneath the Richland sun.

.. Memories of my grandparents will always linger in my mind, eating pinto beans and mayonnaise, riding in tractor buckets, running on dirt piles and getting a soda water from guys.

And you could always guarantee as the old church bells would sway, every time the doors would open, he would be there kneeled to pray. On a cold winters morning he would light the fire and warm the church, so we could all hear the gospel and the teaching of Gods word.

Not a day went by that he didn't rise before this sun; he worked until his fingers bleed or until his job was done. And as he rode back home he would leave you with a smile, waive his hand to everyone, as he passed through the dust of his long country miles.
I love you my precious papaw. You will never ever be far from my heart because with every beat that my heart makes it will hold you. No other grandfather could ever win that place in my heart. Kiss our babies in heaven - Austin and Grant and our Mamaw Billy and all our other many family memebers. We will be with you all one day, but until then my precious papaw you will be with me every breath I take..
