

Charlotte Morris

September 3, 1982 - April 12, 2026

Charlotte Morris, 42, of Corsicana, Texas, passed away on April 12, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and selflessness that will never be forgotten.

Charlotte was born on September 3, 1983, and was raised in Navarro County. She graduated from Blooming Grove High School and, just five days later, courageously stepped into service for her country, leaving for boot camp at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. During her time in the United States Air Force, she was stationed in Okinawa, Japan, and later in Louisiana. Though she served her country with pride, her heart ultimately led her back home to care for her father—a reflection of who she was at her core: devoted, compassionate, and selfless beyond measure.

Charlotte was truly one of a kind. She had a heart that overflowed with kindness, empathy, and grace. She would give the shirt off her back to help someone in need without ever thinking twice. She was a light in this world—a steady, comforting presence to so many—and her absence leaves a space that cannot be filled.

Her faith was the foundation of her life. Charlotte loved the Lord deeply. She found peace in talking to God and spending time in His Word, and her faith carried her through every season of her life. It was evident in the way she loved others—with patience, forgiveness, and unwavering compassion.

Above all, Charlotte loved her children, Jayda and Kaiden Morris, with her whole heart. They were her greatest joy, her purpose, and the center of her world. She also cherished time spent with her family, creating memories through the simple things she loved—painting, fishing, and working on her diamond art.

Charlotte will always be remembered as a beautiful soul, a loving mother, a devoted daughter, sister, and friend—a true shining light who made the world better just by being in it.

She is survived by her beloved children, Jayda and Kaiden Morris; her sister, Toni Morris; her brother, Scotty Morris; her nieces and nephews, Michael Dean Morris, Miranda Morris, Hudson Morris, Mylie Morris, Blakely Morris, Noah Morris, and Tate Morris; and her family, Tyler and Mandie Morris.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Verna Lee Morris, and her father, Benny Earl Morris.

Though she is no longer with us, Charlotte's love, her faith, and her light will live on in every life she touched. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished
