

Cheryl Wells Carpenter

July 26, 1941 - October 25, 2023

Cheryl Wells Carpenter, 82, passed away on October 25th, 2023, in Pursley, TX. Cheryl was born July 26th, 1941, in Waco, TX. She was a warm and generous soul who was deeply loved by her family and friends.

Cheryl is survived by her daughter, Angela Dyer, and husband Danny of Pursley; granddaughters Janna Weiss and husband David of Ennis, and Becky Partain and husband Leonard of Haslet; four great-grandchildren: Ryan Goldstein of Pursley, Chase Weiss of Ennis, James Luster of Flower Mound, and Ryan Partain and wife Jennifer of White Settlement; three great-great-grandchildren: Aiden and Angel Goldstein, and Phoebe Salas; her niece Deborah Wells; her nephew, Justin Swink, wife Renee, and their children, Violet and Catalina; her great-nephew Alec Swink; her beloved sister-in-law, Patricia Washmon; and her precious canine companion, Maddie. She was preceded in death by her parents, Raymon and Janet Wells of Dawson; her husband, Charles Carpenter of Tyler; and her twin brother, Gerald Wells of Corsicana. May she be reunited with them in Heaven.

The family extends a special thank you to Bristol Hospice and Cheryl's caregivers, Kara and Christie, as well as Outreach, and Cheryl's caring companion, Marie, for the loving and compassionate care they provided.

Visitation will be from 3-5pm Friday, October 27th at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home.
