“ I met Cheryl in 1987 and she was such a strong woman...I used to say EVERYONE needs a Cheryl to keep you right. She got dealt an ugly raw life hard but won in the long run...God said enough hurt for you and took her home...no more worries about being labeled a LIE your whole life...Cheryl we tried justice in every form but it don't exist...rest easy and know WE loved you ❤️🙏

“ Cheryl was the best friend I never had my whole life. Her being in my life the past 10 years and now I have a huge void and empty space in heart..she loved me like no other and was always there..she loved my grandchildren like her own..a truly special soul who knew me inside and out as I knew her inside and out..will love you forever sweet friend..
