“ After I got divorced I was not doing good, and Chris made me get all dolled up and we went to a bar and we got wasted. Which was exactly what I needed, I was able to pull it together with his help. I never really told him thank you for that, I wish now that I had and that I told him a lot more he was one of my guy friends that always had my back!!! You will always be in my heart can't believe your gone!!!!!!

“ Mike and I send our heartfelt thoughts and prayers to all of you. Our hearts break for you over the loss of Chris. He was always such a pleasure to be around. May God wrap his arms of Love, Strength and Comfort around each of you during this sad time. May his memories help to bring you comfort and just remember he's not gone, he's just away and enjoying being with his daddy and his grandmother Darlene.
