Aunt Christine, it's been almost 2 years since you left us. I miss our long phone calls. Don't tell anyone, but you were my favorite. LOL. I would love to hear your witty laugh one more time.

*Love you,

“ She was one of the most wonderful ladies I have ever meet . So kind and never seen her without a smile in her face .

“ I had the good fortune to be around this sweet lady several times and I could see clearly where Janice and David got their very nice disposition. My heart goes out to you all as does my prayers. When you start to feel sad as I know you do just remember that she's reunited with your Daddy now and imagine that. It'll make you feel better.

“ Christine was my sister in law, but more than that my friend. I'm going to miss all of our talks on the phone, going to eat at the steak house, getting together for Christmas. I truly loved her and I am going to miss her so much. She is up there with Clyde, Bobby, Willie Erv, Nina Ruth, Irene, Linda, Wanda and all her other family members and friends that have gone on before. I know they are having some reunion.

“ I only met Mrs Jock on one occasion I stopped in to see how Janice was doing. The three of us sat for several hours and talk about kids, grandkids, and husbands. When she talked about her husband she smiled and said what a good life they had together and how she missed him so. All I can think now is they are together again. I pray that JJesus gives you all comfort during this time.
