“*Dave, Alyson, Tiffany, Corey and kids, I am heartbroken to hear of Chris' passing. I was grieved not to be able to attend the funeral as it happened, but I was grateful for the livestream, which I watched after church on Sunday. I wrote a lengthy tribute to Chris on my Facebook page and included a song that I have recorded from my time with Chris during the Calvary Laguna days. I feel that it's the ironic song of his lifetime, especially the way it was recorded. I'll put the link here if I can. I loved your son so much and am so grateful for who he was during the years that I knew him. I was particularly grateful to hear that he was struggling toward the Lord at the end. I can't wait to laugh with him again! Much love to you all. I am so very sorry for your loss. If I'm unable to post the link to that tune, please email me, and I'll get the tunes that I have and my tribute to Chris that way. “ Hey Reinhardt Family. I worked closely with Chris for the last 5 years and I am absolutely heartbroken to hear of his passing. Our relationship grew well past coworkers very early on when we shared each of personal histories within the church, our shared personal/family struggles with mental health, and our love for music and creative things. My conversations with him were always a joy. No matter what he was going through, himself, he was always so invested in what was going on with me and my family - checking in on my wife and kids every week. I had the pleasure of getting to see him during the creative process for his game, and for all of the graphics that went along with it. He was open, giving, caring. He was so excited to send me one of the first copies of the Game of You. In honor of his life and what he was passionate about, I'll be playing the two-player version of the game with my wife tonight. I'm going to miss him very much; he was a very special human being, and I feel so lucky to have been close with him. I hope that with time, and loads and loads of prayer, you all begin to find peace. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Reinhardt family, my name is Nora, I am the mother of Erin Mc Laughlin Mc Gee a dear friend to Chris. I have a sweet memory of a family trip to Disneyland and precious Chris joined us. We had an amazing time. I clearly remember a picture of all of us on Main Street in Disneyland. Chris had a beautiful smile on his face. The pure joy on his face illuminated the photo. He was a sweet and kind young man. Many of us will miss him. My heart goes out to the Reinhardt family, as I personally know the incredible loss of a son to suicide. It has been over 17 years. My prayers are with you.
