“ May God hold each heart and each hand, each step of the way down this long hard journey we, as Claudie's Family and Friends, will have to walk without her.

I know without a doubt in my heart, soul or mind, that God was holding Claudie's heart and hand each step of the way down the long hard journey she walked before her first step toward heaven.

Think of stepping on shore and finding it heaven ..

Of breathing new air and finding it celestial ..

Of hearing new music and finding it angelic ..

Of feeling invigorated and finding it immortality..

Of waking up and finding it home ..

Of feeling a touch and finding that it's God's hand ...

Rest in Peace my Sister ...

“ Claudie,

You have always been a down to earth, honest, loving, smiling, sweet lady. You were there for me in a lot of really hard times and you always spoke your mind. You always told me when i was wrong and what I was doing wrong. You gave me quite a few pep talks and a lot of dressing downs. You always told it like you saw it, and I will always hold a very special place in my heart for you.

*Doug, Beverly, and Jenny, I am so sorry for your loss and I know how very much your momma meant to each of you. I want to thank yall for letting me in your lives so I could have known your momma. She was the greatest MOM you could have asked for. I love yall!
Thank you! Tammy*

“ Aunt Claudie was the most wonderful person. I will miss her so much. I still remember the hot peppers we all had to eat as kids when we were caught saying words we shouldn't say. I remember all of the love and hugs she gave me over the years. I always hated to have my picture taken but now wish she could take one more. To my cousins, Doug, Bev and Jenny I can't imagine the pain you are feeling with the loss of your mother. I know it must be 100 times what I feel or more. Just find peace and comfort knowing that your mother is in heaven and walking with Uncle Arthur, our grandparents and Uncle Wayne. She was truly an angel here on earth so she must be magnificent as an angel in heaven. To my Uncle David, always remember that she loved you and that we love you. I know that this is going to be so hard for you but let us help you thru it. We are here for you anytime. Although she was my Aunt she was one of my mom's too. When my mom wasn't available Aunt Claudie always was. I can't imagine what it's going to be like without her here but I know that I now have a very special angel watching over me.

*I love you all

“ We have shared so much of our life together. I don't know how we are going to get along without you. I wish I was there to fix your hair today. I love you and I will miss you so very much, especially that wonderful laughter of yours when you finally got the joke. When I think of you, the scripture Proverbs 31 comes to my mind. The joy in my heart comes from knowing you have arrived at your mansion on the hilltop as well as knowing I will see you again in Glory.

“ Claudie was a kind hearted and very considerate person. She made me feel welcomed when I came to the Frost PO and she was always willing to help and do anything I asked her to help me do. She loved her family very much and she also loved and cared about her friends. I will deeply miss Claudie and her wonderful smile and laughter. I am very glad that God gave me the opportunity to meet her and call her my friend.

“ My Aunt Cleo was a very stout woman. I can remember times in my childhood when I thought she was the meanest person to ever walk the face of the earth. (That's cuz many a time, I got my butt tore up with a china-berry tree switch that she made me pick out myself...talk about torture).

But as I grew up and spent time with her off and on over the years, I came to appreciate her more and more.

She was funny, witty, sensible, and one of those people that when she said what she said, that was it, period. She might have been a small woman, but she was a woman that you didn't argue with.

As with life, time and circumstances prevented all of us from spending as much time together as we all wanted, adn I regret that with all my heart, but, the last time I saw my aunt at our family reunion, I hugged her neck and told her I loved her very, very much - so I know that she knew that.

I will miss her laugh, her smile, and the sparkle in her eyes when something caught her as funny.

I know that God needed her to come home - for whatever reason - and whether or not I understand it, I know that one day I will see her again, and then, it will be forever.

Aunt Cleo, I love you very much, and I know you're watching over those of us left down here on this earth.

I can't wait to see you again.

“ Rememberance--You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she's gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she'd want:

SMILE, OPEN YOUR EYES, LOVE AND GO ON!!

“ Aunt Cleo was a wonderful woman. I didn't get to spend as much time with her that i wish i could have. But when I did, I had the most fun. I remember as a young girl, she would tell me that when i got older to come work for her at her cafe. I loved the waitress thing back then. And no matter how long ago its been, I remember her like it was yesterday. I love you very much Aunt Cleo. You are going to be very missed. Enjoy heaven,, cause The Lord knows I'm jealous of you right now!! I can't wait to be with you again, so we can catch up. Continue cooking your delicious food, and don't get rusty. We are all gonna be hungry when we get there.. As for Uncle David, Doug. Bev, and Jenny, I don't know you very well, but I am dearly sorry, Cleo was a wonderful woman. Just know that she walks with Jesus now. She is definatly living the good life. And again,, I love you Cleo.

“ David,
Words are not too comforting at this time but I did want to tell you how much Claudie will be missed here in Frost. When she had the cafe, she kept Charlie from starving to death on many occasions. Her service to this community in the post office was always done with such a cheerful smile and she was so helpful to me with finding Frost Cemetery addresses. She will be missed by many. “ I wish to share a story.

"In the bottom of an old pond lived some grubs who could not understand why none of their group ever came back after crawling up the lily stems to the top of the water. They promised each other that the next one who was called to make the upward climb would return and tell what had happened to him. Soon one of them felt an urgent impulse to seek the surface; he rested himself on the top of a lily pad and went through a glorious transformation which made him a dragonfly with beautiful wings. In vain he tried to keep his promise. Flying back and forth over the pond, he peered down at his friends below. Then he realized that even if they could see him they would not recognize such a radiant beautiful creature as one of their number.

The fact that we cannot see our family/friend or communicate with them after the transformation which we call death is no proof that they cease to exist. They will forever live in your heart. Your loved one has transformed into something truly beautiful. Death is a transformation from this life to the next. I am sure if she could tell you....she would tell you how happy she is now. God be with you all and may he comfort your hearts.

“ My old friend,I recall... the times we had, hanging on my wall....I wouldn't trade them for gold...they laugh and they cry me, somehow sanctify me.. woven in the stories I have told.. and tell again.. My Old Friend..I apologize, for the years that have passed.. since the last time you and I... dusted off, those memories...but the running and the races.. the people and the places.. Always somewhere else I had to be.. and time gets thin.. My old Friend.. Don't know why.. don't know why.....

My Old Friend... this songs for you... for a few simple verses, is the least I can do... To tell the world, that you were here.... and the love and the laughter... will live on long after... all of the sadness and the tears....we'll meet again, My Old Friend.... goodbye, goodbye, I love you my dear sister.

“Cleo, I'm glad I made it to Texas in time to see you before you went to see our Jesus. I prayed hard for your healing, and now you have it. There is no more pain, no more misery and no more suffering. I will miss you here on this earth, but I have the peace in knowing that because you knew the Lord as your personal savior, I will someday be reunited with you in that wonderful place we know as heaven. We don't always understand God's plan for our lives, but they are just that -- His plans. We don't belong to each other, we belong to Him. We are simply on loan to our earthly family and friends for a short time. My heart hurts because you are no longer here with us to laugh and sing. But my heart rejoices in knowing that you are with our Lord Jesus Christ. I only hope that those who remain here on this earth will come to know Jesus as their personal Savior and be united with you in Heaven. Just to say that you is going to heaven doesn't get you there. You must be born again and live for Jesus. Cleo, you were a fun loving, laughing, smiling beautiful flower in any bouquet. I know you have made God's bouquet a little brighter. I could ramble on for days about you sis, but I will leave here with this thought: I loved you so much and I will miss you so much. I hope God lets me have a mansion next door to you when my time comes. See you one day soon. I love you baby sister. Peace be unto the family and friends of my sister -- Claudie Marie (Cleo) Ishmael in Jesus' name -- Amen.

“ Claudie, We just want to say that we love you so very much. You will be missed by all that knew you. You brought so much love and laughter into everyone's life. You never met a stranger, even when you didn't know them, you had a way of making them feel like family. You were our angle here on earth and now you are our guardian angle in heaven. We will forever miss your smile, your laughter, your kindness and your love. We know that you are in God's house now, he is taking care of you. We Know that you are at peace and no more pain. But there will always be an empty place in our hearts for you. We wont say good bye, we will just say until we meet again. We love you and miss you.

“ I just want to say it was an honor to call Claudie my friend, she was always kind, generous, and funny I never spoke with her on the phone or in person where we did not share a laugh.
