

Cleo Brannon Goddard

October 3, 2007

Cleo S. Brannon, 92 of Fort Worth formerly of Corsicana, passed away October 3, 2007 in Fort Worth. She was born in Ellis County in 1915, she was loved by all who knew her.

She is preceded in death by husband Burl Brannon former caretaker of Hamilton-Beeman cemetery and daughter Barbara M. Barratt.

She is survived by sons Robert B. Brannon of Garmisch Germany and Tommy Joe Brannon of Fort Worth. Daughters Martha Murrell and Suzy Cleve both of Mayhill New Mexico. 13 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Services will be by 1:00pm Saturday at James Avenue Church in Fort Worth with grandson Steve Fish officiating. Burial will follow at Hamilton-Beeman cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Cleo Brannon Goddard

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Dear Joe, Bob, Suzie, and Martha,

"Gone but not forgotten" speaks volumes as I reflect on all the wonderful memories of special times spent with all of you and Aunt Cleo in Texas and even in Louisiana. I think of the times she let me help cook or gather eggs, or churn butter. I probably didn't often do it the right way but she was never harsh with me and either helped me through it or found something else for me to do, (like pick chinaberries)from the tree by the barn. I especially remember her soft hands and her gentle voice. She was a strong God fearing, loving wife and mother. Even now there are times things she taught me come to mind and I have incorporated into my own life. We all will miss her on this earth, but her memories will last forever and be passed down to generations, both present and future.

Although I cannot be with you physically at this time please know that you are all in a special place in my heart.

*God bless you and I LOVE YOU
RANDYE*

Randy Brannon Carter - October 03, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DW

“ Suzy & Joe,

I am so sorry to find out about the loss of your mother. She was such a special lady. I have very fond memories of the time that she was a part of my life. I will never forget those times I shared with her. She always made me feel welcome in her home and made some of the best fudge I have ever eaten.

I am sure this is a very difficult time for you'all. My thoughts and prayers will be with you. I was at the funeral home tonight for a friend's father and I thought that was your mom, but was not sure because I had not seen her in so long. I did go in her room, but there was no one from the funeral home for me to ask so I did not sign the book. I came home and looked in the paper to see if it was her, so I am glad I went in the room. Wish I could have seen you'all. If you are still in town Sat. night or Sunday I would love to see you'all or talk. I would try to come to the graveside, but I am obligated to be somewhere else Sat. afternoon. My cell phone number is 903-654-8286. Suzy, I would love to visit and catch up on the many years since I last saw you.

Again, my thoughts and prayers will be with you. I will never forget your mother.

Sincerely,

Debbie

Debbie Russell Widener - October 03, 2007 at 12:00 AM

SM

“ I will always think of Aunt Cleo as the original Martha Stewart! She could cook scrumptious fried pies, sew stunning designs, grow sweet-smelling flowers, stretch resources, turn something common into a work of beauty, articulate thoughtful sentiments, sing a soft melody, paint lovely pictures, thread Chinaberries into a necklace, and cut my daddy's hair.

Her touch was always gentle as she taught this city kid to gather eggs, churn butter, or lick the beaters as they came out of the homemade ice cream freezer.

Her life was a blessing to many. It is a joy to know that all of her talents and abilities are once again free. I look forward to seeing her again, on the other side of this life.

*Brannon love,
Sharon*

Sharon Brannon McCone - October 03, 2007 at 12:00 AM